Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information.

Schedule I, Part I, Line 2 - Since 2001, the CNF has attracted premier young investigators for its awards. We publicize the award to request candidates with the American Academy of Neurology; Professors of Child Neurology; Child Neurology Society; and the American Academy of Pediatrics. Applications reviewed via a defined methodology community. Upon grant award, recipients sign a contract with CNF which outlines expectations for reporting during and at the conclusion of the grant award. CNF manages the execution of the grant administration and reporting throughout the grant duration. Child neurologist researcher applicants are asked to submit a letter of application. These letters are ranked by a committee of well-respected child neurologists. (Members avoid conflict of interest by recusing themselves.) Top contenders are invited to submit full applications. CNF uses a hybrid of the NIH research application. The committee then ranks and submits the top applicant to the CNF Board of Directors for confirmation. Outside donors are not involved in the selection of the awardee or any guidelines regarding the use of research funds. Grant award checks are never made payable to the individual researcher. Rather, checks are made payable to the institutions for which they either work or go to school. Reports are required of the researcher at the midpoint of their research in the form of progress reports and at the end to show the results of their research. In the case of scholarship recipients, the same is true. Check are made payable to their institution and their reports are due at the end of their research. Additionally, starting in 2016, CNF provided grants to support organizations' efforts in increasing infantile spasms awareness. To be eligible for an award, an organization needs to be a member of infantile spasms action network and complete the grant application. If all criteria on the application was met, then the organization was cut a check.
